

With respect to the do not call law. I think New Jerseys is perfect. If a company wants to solícite persons, then I suggest advestise in the paper, billboards, etc. If we the people want the service we can reach out to the company. We dont not need 15 different companies a day reaching out to us at our homes.